

Mae Lindstrom

I didn't take lessons from Pauline, so I don't have any personal memories from my childhood, but I can tell you that she was very kind to me when I attended Grace Martyn's funeral a few years ago. I was there alone, and Pauline invited me to sit with her. That meant so much to me. We linked arms and got through that beautiful service together.

Mae Lindstrom